I, _____, certify that I have read and understand the Worthy Student Scholarship Policy for 2023- 2024 as follows:

1. This award is based on the Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) from the FAFSA which falls into a certain range. The EFC range may change from year-to-year based on either the student/parents finances.
2. Student must be full-time.
3. The maximum scholarship award is $2,500 per year ($1,250 per semester.)
4. Student must reside on campus.
5. This scholarship will be administered to students with EFC range from 1600 to 9000.
6. Students are NOT eligible to receive the Worthy Student scholarship under the following conditions:
 - * Students who receive the Platinum scholarships.
 - * Students who receive SDA Organizational, Conference or OU Subsidy.
 - * Students who have 35% or more of their tuition reimbursed by an employer or any sponsoring organization.
 - * Students with an EFC range from 0 to 1599.
 - * Students that receive SEOG.
 - * Students who are in the LEAP, AP4, Master's program or Dietetic.
7. If a student is initially awarded the Worthy Student Scholarship and later loses eligibility according to the conditions listed above, the award will be reversed, and the student will be notified.
8. Students who are awarded the Worthy Student Scholarship must submit a signed disclaimer which indicates that these guidelines have been accepted and understood. At least one signed disclaimer must be on file for the student before funds will be disbursed.
9. All scholarships are subject to available university funds and the timely completion of the FAFSA.
