

Housing Accommodations

Student Attendees:

1. Campus housing will be provided for registered and paid OU Live student participants.
2. Rooms will be assigned at the university's discretion. Additional accommodation details will follow by email once assignments have been finalized. Please be sure to enter your email address correctly.
3. Tickets for meals will be given ONLY to those who are registered and have paid their registration fee.
4. Student attendees are required to adhere to all campus, residence halls, and event participation guidelines (i.e., curfew, visitors, illegal substances, weapons, etc.).

Chaperone Attendees:

1. Chaperones who have registered and paid their registration fees will be housed (double occupancy) at area hotels, courtesy of Oakwood University.
2. Rooms will be assigned at the university's discretion.
3. Please note that Check-in time begins at 3 pm on October 4th and check-out is October 8th by 12 pm.
4. Please note that chaperones are still responsible for their group's well-being and supervision throughout the event's full duration.
5. All meals will be provided on campus; alternate meals will be at your own expense.

Additional Information for all attendees:

1. Individuals registering after the September 29th deadline are not guaranteed respective campus/hotel accommodations. Please plan accordingly.
2. Oakwood University will not be responsible for making arrangements for individuals/groups seeking alternative accommodations; such booking arrangements will be at your own expense.
3. Any registrants arriving before October 4th or remaining after check-out, on October 8th by noon, will be responsible for your lodging and meal expenses and accommodations.

